Claims 1-9 are presented for examination.

Applicants' information disclosure statement filed March 8, 2004 has been received and entered.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-9, 12 and 12 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,683,077 B2.

The present application and the patented application claim the same 2-amino-benzoxazinone compounds (broad and preferred).

For example, see claim 2 of present application for 5-methyl-2-[(1R)-1-phenylethyl]amino]-4H-3,1-benzoxazin-4-one, and see claim 9, lines 18 and 19 for the same compound.

Claims 1-3 are not allowed.

This is a double patenting rejection.

Claims 4-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1, 2 and 4-8 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,380,189 B1.

The present application and the patented application claim the same method of therapeutic treatment of a viral infection in a subject or a method of inhibiting a viral protease in a subject infected with a virus wherein the viral infection or virus is caused by a herpesvirus, CMV, HSV-1 or HSV-2.

For example, see claims 4-6 of the present application are the same as claims 1, 7 and 8.

Claims 4-9 are not allowed.

This is a double patenting rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 6 is rendered indefinite because the claim cannot depend upon itself.

Claim 6 is not allowed.
